CUSTOM HOME COLLECTION

This home has everything you have ever looked for in a compact home, including three bedrooms and two baths. Ah, there's nothing like a private owners suite to tempt you into looking further, we knew that.

The open concept living space creates an inviting atmosphere for friends and family to gather around. Simple, clean lines and minimal wasted space are the hallmarks of this affordable living home. Just the thing for you and your family to move right in and enjoy making it into the place you've always dreamed of.

We've packed a lot of living into a smaller space, just the way you like it. So who says you can't look at a new home right now? Certainly not us. We want you to look at what this plan can offer you in terms of space, economy and just downright hominess. We think it just might be the right home for you.

We can just picture you sitting at the kitchen island, booting up your laptop while your mug of coffee cools, for that's when you'll know that you are...Home at Last.
