"Cute as a button" are the words that come to mind when you look at this adorable two bedroom, two bath home. The covered front porch welcomes you into the open great room area. Did we hear a vaulted ceiling mentioned? It could be done—right before your very eyes! Imagine how spacious this entire first floor would look then. Now we've got you thinking.

The secondary bedroom and bath are conveniently located just off the great room, providing a secluded area for guests, children or that home office you can't live without.

An open stairway invites you to get busy and finish off some extra space in the lower level. We've shown an option for adding not only a family room (with a bar area, of course) but also a laundry room, bath and spare bedroom. Wow! Can you believe all of the extra living space you add just by finishing the lower level?

With this open floor plan, pleasing exterior elevation and potential for expanded lower level living space, we know it won't be long before you have moved in and started your new life—feeling quite confident that you are....Home at Last.
