CUSTOM HOME COLLECTION

A place for everything and everything in its place.

That was the idea behind this home design. From a closet in the laundry, to a walk-in pantry in the kitchen, to a home office space in the great room; this home helps you get organized so you can spend your time enjoying your life. Wait! There's more--each bathroom features its own linen closet, too.

The galley kitchen (most professional chefs preferred layout) allows you to work efficiently. Let's all gather around for that afternoon football party--snacks are served at the bar, friends are gathered around the big TV right next to the optional fireplace. Enjoy the open concept living with bedrooms just down the hall.

And to make it even better, you can add an option to open the stairs to the lower level and create a whole new living space. It is just waiting to be finished! Once you settle in, you will know you are... Home at Last.
