Welcome to our Cape Cod home. We hope that it is just like being in New England. Do you see that formal dining room off the foyer?—we see you are eyeing it up for a home office. Guests won't even have to go through the house to get there.

In this home, the kitchen and great room share a great view of your backyard, with a little extra breakfast space for sitting on the weekends and watching all those birds you've been feeding all winter.

We've tucked the master suite into the back corner for privacy and given you two great bedrooms upstairs with a shared computer loft. You'll notice that we haven't forgotten the powder room and laundry on the first floor.

Convenience for you, that's the name of our game. Apparently, we'll do anything to make sure that when you walk in that door, you know that you are...Home at Last.
